

Super SHEDS

Good outbuilding design can enhance instead of detract from a property. By Christianna McCausland

Garden sheds, once relegated to the corner of the property in hopes the multiflora rose and poison ivy would cover up its utilitarian form, are moving into the landscape.
